MIDNIGHT MISSILES.

LATEST FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

More About the St. Petersburg Explosion---Serious Railroad Accident--Murderer Hanged.

ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 20.—The Golus says: Cellar under Winter Palace was occupied by four joiners, three of whom have been arrested. It is estimated the weight of the dynamite used was about four pounds. Winter Palace and other palaces are being carefully searched by a company of specially charged sapphires. Total number of persons killed by the explosion was ten; burial of victims will take place to-day.

Railroad Accident.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 20.—A Bellaire special states that as the engine of a passenger train of the bellaire & Southwestern Narrow Gauge Railroad came on the trestle work, eighty feet high, near Jacobsborough station, last night, it jumped the track, throwing the coach and baggage car down an embankment, turning both bottom up. It is rumored that ex-Congressman Danford and a Mrs. Caldwell are mortally wounded, and A. B. Booth, mail agent, badly bruised.

LATER.

NEW YORK, Feb. 20—10 p. m.—A telegram from Bellaire, O., says that the train on the Bellaire & Southwestern Railroad, while approaching Woodfield, O., about half-past five o'clock yesterday evening, fell through the trestle work near Jacobsburg. Two passenger coaches and a cook-car fell about eighteen feet. A. S. Wylie, the fireman, who lives near Burr's Mill, O., was seriously if not fatally injured. Ex-Congressman Danford, of Ohio, sustained painful but not dangerous wounds, and several other passengers were more or less injured. The wounded are being kindly cared for by the residents near the scene of the accident, and, with the exception of Wylie, are likely to recover soon. The accident resulted from the breaking of a truck fastening.

STILL LATER.

CINCINNATI, O., Feb. 20—12 p. m.—Advices from the scene of the Railroad accident, near Bellaire, O., are meagre, as there is no telegraph line to the spot. It is reported that ex-Congressman Danford, Mrs. Caldwell and Mr. Bowmer are fatally hurt, and that at least ten or twelve other persons are seriously injured.

Couldn't Let Them Alone.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 20—A dispatch from Murfreesboro, Tenn., says fully ten thousand persons witnessed the hanging of John Hall and Burrell Smith, near Little's Creek, to-day for the murder of Henry Fogg in 1879. The scaffold was erected within 300 yards of the public square, and raised seats had been erected facing it. Sittings upon which were sold for a dollar a piece. Hall died without a struggle, but Smith's death was painfully prolonged.

Joe Johnston Addresses Ways and Means Committee.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—The subcommittee of the House Ways and Means committee to-day heard arguments by Representative Joe Johnston and Mr. Burr, of Richmond, in favor of the bill amending the Revised Statutes to the tobacco export bonds. They will probably report it favorably to the full committee soon.

Cabinet Makers Strike.

NEW YORK, Feb. 20.—Five hundred cabinet makers in the employ of H. Herman, struck yesterday for an increase of wages.

Foreign Flashes.

LONDON, Feb. 20.—The boring of the St Gothord tunnel will be finished in twelve days.

BERLIN, Feb. 20.—A dispatch says that the Socialist deputies at Bebel and Bader, stated in Reichstag that the German socialism had no connection whatever with the Russian nihilism.

Indians as Citizens.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—The Senate Committee on Territories to-day decided to recommend passage of bill extending jurisdiction to United States Courts in civil and criminal matters to the Indian Territory, and providing for the acquirement of citizenship by Indians and allotment of lands to them in severalty under prescribed conditions.

Confirmations and Rejections.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.- The Senate in executive session to-day confirmed the nomination of John S. Reed to be postmaster at Huntsville, Alabama; and rejected the nomination of Edward T. Parker to be supervisor of census for the first district of Louisiana.

Colored Refugees in Kansas.

NEW YORK, Feb. 19.—A card appears in the morning papers signed by Benjamin B Sherman, president Mechanics' Bank; Jackson S Schultz, Sinclair Tousey, Charles Watrous, F D Tappen, L G B Cannon, George Bliss, Richard Butler, Thos A Acton, J M Regua, J Bishop Putnam, Isaac Sherman, E D Morgan, Wm E Dodge, appealing for help for the colored refugees in Kansas. It states that there are already 15,000 to 20,000 of them in the State. They continue to come day by day, arriving ragged and barefoot and without money. Many are sick from exposure to the severe climate, and a number had been frozen to death. They are anxious for work. Governor St. John says he "has seen no more tramps among them." The appeal continues: "We are gathering up money and supplies for the Irish, which is right. Ought we not to remember our starving fellow-citizens in our own country."

A Colored Man's Charge.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—John B. Syphax is a colored politician, hailing from Virginia. He told the Senate exodus committee the other day that he would appear to day and charge Senator Windom, who is a member of the committee, with originating the negro movement towards the West. He appeared, and so did a crowd of spectators. The only thing he could find to base his charge on was Windom's resolution introduced a year ago, proposing a committee to consider the plan of setting off a territory for colored men who wished to emigrate from any State where they were not allowed their rights. When Syphax had got through Senator Voorhees declined to question him and turned him over to Windom, who asked abruptly: "Have you got a lunatic asylum in Virginia?" "Yes," said the witness. "Then how did you ever escape from it?" The crowd laughed and the negro's accusations fell flat.

TELEPHONES AT SEA.

AN INVENTION THAT LAYS EDISON IN THE SHADE.

How Voyagers Can Talk with Those They Left Behind and Learn Home News.

There lives near Lockport, N. Y., a Frenchman named Pierre Valcour, who claims to have invented a deep sea telephone that will revolutionize the world enabling voyagers to speak with friends at home while tossing on the stormy ocean. The Lockport Union gives the following account of a visit to the inventor's laboratory:

M. Valcour took the writer to a large shed, which, he said, contained the principal apparatus for keeping up telephonic and telegraphic communication with a vessel going at the highest rate of speed, in any weather, with the main shore. The entire machinery was encased in a cigar-shaped metallic float, thirty feet long. A longitudinal section through the middle of this shell presents a perfect ecliptse, the greatest diameter being six feet, or one-fifth of its length. This shell is one-eighth of an inch in thickness, made of the finest gun barrel metal, presenting, when water-tight, a perfectly smooth, glazed surface. Within this shell are a series of reels, mounted on axles, which are seated in sockets perpetually oiled by a powdered lubricator of the nature of soapstone. On these reels were coiled over 3,000 miles of perfectly insulated composition wire, the fine wire being made under the highest possible tests, of the best material known to electricians. But the wire does not appear to be the important feature at all.

"You know," said M. Valcour, "that one of the chief problems in laying the Atlantic cable was perfect insulation, and you are aware what a many-stranded cable it is, covered with adhesive substances, various y compounded. Of course, then, I sought to fabricate a single wire, so insulated that the electric fluid, and sound itself, could not be impaired by immersions, and I have succeeded, and this part of the invention I shall disclose to no one. Nor shall I patent it, for the reason that, in making any specifications, I shall be obliged to name the process and the materials; and this could be made public, for you have only to inclose twenty cents to the Patent Office, and they will forward you any patent."

M. Valcour then said if the writer would like to see the apparatus working, he would have his portable boiler fired up and we could see the wire reeled off at twenty miles an hour. When the engine was in readiness a large reel was placed on a horizontal shaft and turned rapidly, the bearings being carefully oiled. M. Valcour then placed the insulated wire leading from the metal shell over the engine reel, fastening the end to it, so that as the reel in the shell fed out it might wind up. The engine was started; the reel began to wind up while we noted the revolutions. Almost instantly the wire was being taken at the rate of twenty miles an hour, and, to gratify the writer, it was run up to thirty miles an hour, or twice the speed of ocean-going vessels.

"Now," said the inventer, "you will note that when this wire is being plaid out by the shell at sea, which is towed by the vessel, it will be put to no such violent strain or tension as here, when it is literally being wound up by machinery. Here everything is violence; there everything is mild."

As the operation continued there was no break or flaw. Mr. Valcour then explained the practical adaptation of this shell to navigation, which, as will be seen below, has already been demonstrated. The float of shell is so weighted in the distribution of the metal that it will always sit on the water, with its slight keel down, and float like a boat. It is towed to the stern, say of an outward bound steamer, and to a large ring-bolt in the bow of the shell a chain cable is made fast, and likewise the other end to the stern of the vessel. This chain cable is 100 feet long, to enable the float to keep out of eddies formed in the wake of the vessel. There are also side chain-braces secured to side bolts in the shell and leading to the vessel.

From the telegraph and telephone station on board ship, wire is led through a metalic pipe to the stern; it then enters a small perforation, carefully prepared at the bow of the shell, and enters the foremost reel in the shell. The wire going over the combination of curiously placed reels by varying sizes, is uninterrupted throughout its entire length—hundreds of miles more than enough to traverse the usual pathway of ocean-going steamers to Europe. The shore end of the wire is connected with companies' offices in New York; and when the vessel drops down to Sandy Hook the wire from the sternmost reel in the shell is connected there. The vessel starts out to sea; the wire begins to release itself. When 200 miles have been accomplished, an automatic connection releases a leaden sinker, weighing five pounds, and this, as the vessel goes on, finds its way to the bed of the ocean. At the point where the sinker is attached the wire is much heavier, for a distance of 200 feet. Thus at every 200 miles, this shell, which is full of automatic and clock-work machinery, releases a sinker, thus fixing a telegraph wire on the bed of the ocean. The object of the shell is simply this, that the wire shall not be at the mercy of the rolling and pitching of the ship, so that no great strain shall fall either on the apparatus of the wire; and as the shell is kept in its place by braces and the tow chains, ample slack of wire is had between the reels in the shell and the operating instrument on board ship.

"Yes," said M. Valcour, in reply to the writer, "success is demonstrated beyond a doubt. My wife's cousin, Ernest Ballousk, is master of a Danish ship which left New York on the 12th of December, and connected with a station I established on Staten Island. He towed one of my shells out, and the wire and whole invention complete—all unknown to any one, and not made public until I gave it to you to-day."

M. Valcour says that the expenses will be trivial compared with the advantages to be enjoyed, and would be little more than the cost of the wire, which he is prepared to furnish by contract, at astonishingly low rates, and also his shells.

Before the writer left he maintained perfect telephone communication with M. Valcour for over half an hour through 3,000 miles of wire, coiled in the reels in the shell.

The results of this invention, almost immediate, cannot be overestimated. Among the first, M. Valcour proposes to establish a small printing establishment and issue a little daily sheet on every ocean steamer plying the seas. This right he proposes to become the owner of, and issue his journal called the Ocean Wave, so that no traveler by the sea will remain for an hour ignorant of the world's doings. Private messages will be taken and sent. Friends can hear each other's voices from midocean to shore, and shore to midocean. Instantaneous news of disaster can be flashed to the seaport left—say New York—and as the point of latitude and longitude is told, and as the other companies know the exact position of their ships or steamers, a hundred succoring ships or steamers can be sent with relief; and, as the tracks of commerce are now known and followed, no serious disaster can occur. Other results will be the constant money speculations that can go on by wire. Criminals afloat can be apprehended, the march of storms can be made known, and deaths telegraphed. Cargoes can be bought and sold in transit; contracts can be made; marine insurance effected—and thus will life become almost perfectly cosmopolitanized on every sea and shore.

UNNATURAL PARENTS.

Beating a Little Girl Who Refused to Go For Liquor.

New York Star.

Officer Chiardi of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children brought Mary McMullen, a bright child of 11 years, to Yorkville Court yesterday. An ugly cut was on the child's forehead. She lived with her father and mother, Robert and Margaret McMullen, at the foot of Seventy-sixth street and East River. On Saturday night last the parents sent the child to a liquor saloon to buy fifteen cents' worth of whisky. She returned with a soda water bottle full of gin, with which both her parents got drunk. At 10 o'clock the mother wanted the child to go out for beer, and she refused to go, when the mother seized an iron kettle and struck her on the forehead. She fled from the house and sought refuge with an elder sister, who was employed in Eighth street.

On Sunday the sister made a complaint to the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, and yesterday she was brought before Justice Wendell. She said that her parents had been drinking for a year. She used to go to school, but her mother took her away to run for beer; and when provisions ran short in the house, she was sent out with a basket to beg.

A warrant was issued for the arrest of the man who sold the child the liquor, and Michael Malloy, bartender for King, was arrested. He denied having sold the liquor, but the girl answered: "Yes, he is the man that sold me the liquor."

Justice Wendell held Malloy in $500 bail and gave the child to the Society. The parents will be arrested to-day.

Grant's Strength in the South.

Cincinnati Commercial Interviews Keogh.

"What is Sherman's strength in the South?"

"Grant has the popular strength in the South, Sherman the official strength. Grant will get the majority of the Southern delegation, but still Sherman will receive a very large share of it."

"What States do you put down for Grant?"

"Arkansas, Alabama, Mississippi and Florida, sure, with a fair proportion of delegates from other States. Louisiana, North Carolina, Virginia, Tennessee and South Carolina will probably be for Sherman?"

"Then Grant is in the race?"

"He is; and I am sure, from what I know about the matter, that he will stay in the race until he wins or loses."

"Can he be nominated?"

"I think he can, and very probably upon the first ballot. To-day he is far ahead in the campaign."

"Then the story about his withdrawal is all in your eye?"

"I do not believe he has any intention of withdrawing, and am sure that his friends will not allow him to withdraw if they can possibly help it."

Cotton Thieves Arrested.

Correspondence of the NEWS.

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., Feb. 18—Our town had something of a sensation today. A wagon drove in with three negroes tied, and guarded by two officers with a posse. The negroes under arrest were Louis Merritt, Hugh Baldwin, and Wiley Yeates. The two first live here and it has long been a mystery how they got their living. The third lives in the Raleigh Road, several miles below here. They were all on their way to Hillsboro Jail, being committed for stealing cotton. It is understood that Louis Merritt will give bail, his sureties being Jos. Y. Merritt and George Merritt. Those negroes are accused of stealing a bale of cotton from M. J. McCauley. There are writs out for one Bone Powell, of Chatham, and Henry Stroud, of this place. So far these gentlemen have not been found. Harrison Holland, Jasper Fuller and Stephen Stone, all colored, have been sent to Pittsboro jail. They all belonged to the same gang, or, at least they knew of each others operations. Several bales of cotton have been stolen from the surrounding gins. Wiley Yeates, who was hauling off the cotton, was caught and turned State's evidence.

We have had another death in our town—that of Mrs. Watson, wife of Jones Watson, Esq. She died quite suddenly, living only a few hours after she was taken ill.

Some Tilden Feeling Yet.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—Ex-Congressman Stenger, of Pennsylvania, who has been here for a day or two, says that the feeling among the Democrats of his State is decidedly favorable to Tilden. He further says that, notwithstanding the stories of Tilden's methods to secure the nomination, he thinks that questionable methods are used by his opponents to defeat him.

Heir of the "Boom."

Baltimore Gazette

Hon. E. B. Washburne is said to be the "dark horse" in the Republican presidential camp. His prompt declination in favor of Grant has earned him the title to the succession in case the "boom" should fail.

The Road to Office

Chicago Tribune.

John Smith being a candidate for general appraiser of merchandise at New York, beginning March 5, 1881, has filed caveats for lives of Grant, Blaine, Washburne, Sherman, Edmunds, Tilden, Seymour, Hendricks, Thurman, Bill Morrison, Dark Horse, Yaller Dog and the Great Unknown. But he has not filed a caveat for the life of R. B. Hayes because he believes such a proceeding would be entirely unnecessary.

Cotton Circular.

LIVERPOOL, Feb. 20.—This week's circular of the Cotton Brokers' Association says that cotton was in good demand throughout the week, and that the quotations, excepting for American, generally advanced. American was in good demand with free supply, and the quotations were reduced ⅛ d. In Sea Island a large business was done at full prices. Futures opened dull, with prices declining. On Wednesday there was an improvement of 1-16 d, but since then the market has continued flat. Final rates show an advance of ⅛ d.

Claiming to Have Discovered Perpetual Motion.

MARION, Ohio, February 18.—William J. O'Bern, a miller and William F. Hyett, a mechanic, of Rockland township, are reported to have discovered perpetual motion. They have sent a model to Washington and applied for a patent.

CONGRESSIONAL CAPERS.

YESTERDAY'S PROCEEDINGS OF THE 46TH CONGRESS.

All About What the Senate and House Did Yesterday as Telegraphed The Daily Hows.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, D. C., February 20.—After the presentation of a number of petitions and memorials, Senator Butler introduced a joint resolution providing for the restoration of the books of the Beaufort (S. C.) Library. Referred.

The Senate proceeded to consider the calendar. Besides various private bills, the following were passed:

A bill providing for the delivery of dutiable articles in the mails, and for indemnity for lost registered articles. (It authorizes delivery to addressees in the United States under such regulations for the collection of customs duties as may be agreed upon by the Secretary of the Treasury and Postmaster General of all mailable articles and of dutiable matter received by mail from foreign countries and admissable under the rules of universal postal union and authorizes the Postmaster General to accept and execute the provision of the Paris Postal Union respecting the payment and indemnity of fifty francs in the case of the loss of a registered article.)

A bill authorizing the Secretary and Treasurer to appoint a deputy collector at Lake Charles, La.

A bill to repeal the provisions of the revised statutes authorizing the advance of naval and marine officers thirty numbers in rank for extraordinary heroism.

A number of bills for the relief of private individuals were considered and passed.

A bill to authorize the compilation and publication of a novel history of the war, comprising both the Union and Confederate records, was passed, as were also a bill authorizing the payment of $1200 to Claude H. Masten, of Mobile, for rent of the Levert Hospital during the war; and a bill for the relief of Monroe Donaho, land register, of Alabama.

Bill authorizing payment to Joseph R. Shannon, of Louisiana, value of steamboat impressed into the service of the government during the war.

It was objected to by Senator Allison and laid aside.

At the expiration of the morning hour the Senate resumed consideration of the five per cent and military land warrants bill, and Senator Logan spoke in its support.

After a short executive session Senator Morrill moved that the Senate take up and pass House bill admitting free duty foreign contributions in aid of colored refugees in Kansas.

Objection was made and after some debate the Senate without taking action on the bill, adjourned until Monday.

HOUSE.

Mr. Ellis, of Louisiana, from the Committee on Pacific Railroads, reported back the bill amending and re-enacting in favor of the New Orleans Pacific Railroad Company, section 22 of act of March 3, 1871, incorporating the Texas Pacific Railroad Company. Printed and recommitted.

The Speaker proceeded to call committees for reports on private bills, a number of which were reported and disposed of.

House passed Senate joint resolution authorizing the Secretary of the Navy to designate the vessel of the United States to carry free of charge contributions for the relief of the suffering of Ireland.

The House then went into Committee of the Whole on revision of rules.

Various amendments were offered to rules 23 and 24, but all were voted down and the committee rose without making any changes.

Mr. King, of Louisiana, introduced a bill for dividing the State of Louisiana into two judicial districts. Referred.

The House then adjourned until Monday.

INTER-OCEANIC CANAL.

WASHINGTON, D. C., January 20.—The committee on the Inter-Oceanic Canal had before it this morning A. G. Meusacal, of the United States. None of the Civil Engineers formerly engaged in making surveys of the Isthmus, and heard his statement as to the relative advantages and disadvantages of the Panama and Nicaragua routes. Meusacal favored strongly the Nicaragua route as being 660 miles shorter than the Panama, one as between New York and San Francisco, and because of the greater salubrity of its climate, the better supply of building material and its relative cheapness of the construction. He expressed his conviction that the cost of the Nicaragua Canal would not exceed 70 million while that of the Sea Level Canal at Panama would not be less than 400 millions. The latter regarded as commercially impracticable. He admitted that the passage by the Nicaragua would consume more time on account of its greater length and large number of locks, and that the annual expense of maintaining it would be twice as great, but he thought that these objections were more than set off by its relative cheapness.

Mr. Bayard's Speech for Recognizing the Independence of the Confederate States.

New York Sun.

In Moore's Rebellion Record, vol. 2, at page 9, the following appears under date of June 27, 1861: "At Dover, Delaware, a meeting was held at which resolutions were adopted advocating the recognition of the Southern Confederacy if a reconciliation by peaceable means should become impossible. The assembly was addressed by Thos. F. Bayard, William G. Whitely, ex-Governor Temple and others."

At page 195 of the same volume the resolutions passed at the meeting are giving. One of these favored the recognition of the Confederate States.

Cutting off their Letters.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19—The Postmaster General yesterday issued an order to postmasters prohibiting the delivery of registered letters and money orders to the following persons, represented as being engaged in conducting fradulent schemes: R. C. Winterssmith, No. 3 Mozart Building, Louisville, Ky., supervisor of the Frankfort School Fund Lottery; W. Scott Glore, Louisville, Ky., new agent for the Commonwealth Distribution Company; M. V. Wagner, Marshall, Mich., who advertises to send patent recipes; Bormo & Brother, New Orleans, La., representing the Royal Havana Lottery Company, and D. P. Herrick, 43 New street, New York, who solicits money to invest in railroad and other stocks. It has been further ordered that all persons receiving mail matter under fictitious names shall be identified at the post office before the mail is delivered.

The Fire Record.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 20.—Imperial Cotton mills a Darby, owned by John Verlinders' estate were destroyed by fire last night. Loss $70,000.

A COUNTRY GIRL'S FREAK.

Why Annie Decker was Missing on the Day Fixed for her Wedding.

KINGSTON, N. Y., Feb. 18.—Among the marriage notices in a metropolitan daily recently was that of Mr. William Johnson to Miss Annie Decker. The public announcement of the marriage would be of little consequence, were it not that a romance is connected therewith. Annie Decker is 17 years of age, and is the daughter of Samuel S. Decker, a farmer who lives near Downsville, N. Y. For three years Annie had been receiving the attentions of William Johnson, who formerly lived a few miles from her home. About two years ago young Johnson went to New York and obtained a position as salesman in a large jewelry establisment. He continued his devotions to Miss Decker, and paid occasional visits to her home. The time was at length set for their marriage. Monday, December 29, 1879, was named as the wedding day, and every preparation was made for the event. On the Saturday preceding that date Miss Decker suddenly disappeared from her home, and it soon became noised about that she had eloped with a dashing young agent named Hammond, who had formerly been traveling commercial house in the city of New York. The parents and friends were almost distracted over Annie's flight, and sent word to this city, where she has some intimate friends, with the hope of learning that she had come here; but nothing had been seen of her.

Hammond had been paying particular attention to Annie whenever he could make it convenient to pass through that section, and was seen in the neighborhood on the day of Annie's disappearance, thus giving rise to the suspicion that she had eloped with him. On the arrival of William Johnson the news of Annie's mysterious absence was broken to him, and he became almost frantic. Efforts were at once made to unravel the mystery. Young Hammond was found, but said he had no knowledge of her whereabouts. Johnson returned to New York, and, with a detective, began a search for the missing girl. After a four weeks' search she was seen by the detective coming out of a private boarding house in Seventh avenue, and was soon brought face to face with her betrothed. After she had satisfactorily explained her disappearance, it was decided that they go at once to the residence of a minister and get married. This was done, and a letter by the next mail informed the sorrow-stricken parents of the result. The newly-made couple paid a flying visit last week to this city and to the home of the bride's parents.

Annie's story, as told by herself, is in substance as follows: She had often read and been told how young and handsome girls could procure paying situations in New York, live and dress well, and marry in wealthy families. She was suddenly inspired with the desire to go there, and gratified that desire. She had obtained a situation in a confectionery store as saleslady, at $5 a week to start on.

At a Tender Age

Baltimore American.

The House of Representatives held a session, "for debate only," on Saturday. The debate was not very exciting, but it brought to light the important fact that Mr. Chittenden, of New York, yoked oxen at the age of thirteen, while Mr. Hayes, of Illinois, performed the same feat at the tender age of ten. This is what might be called a case of "baby farming."

Coming Back Slowly and Sadly.

Washington Post.

Slowly and sadly the exodusting negroes, or such of them as can pay their way, are getting back to North Carolina. They have seen enough of Radical benevolence to last them for some years.

Mrs. Conkling Broken-hearted.

New York Express.

Mrs. Conkling is said to be heart broken because her husband will not be reconciled to their only daughter, who had the audacity to marry an excellent but poor man.

A Brave Young Woman.

Springfield Republican.

All honor to the young woman who committed her remains to cremation at Washington, Pa., the other day. She should take her place with the women who first went upon the dramatic stage, who first preached, and who first cast a vote, and with the man who first carried an umbrella amid a hooting crowd. We are constantly in need of acts of personal courage of this kind to oppose the tyranny of custom and fashion, often brutal, expensive and oppressive. The fashion of wearing mourning, of funeral pageants and wakes, and of attaching any burdens of bereavement beyond those rights dictated by simple respect, tenderness and consolation, is most onerous, and is often followed under circumstances which render it most reprehensible. The sanitary sweetness of cremation will give it a high place in the mortuary rites of the future and as facilities for conducting the process are multiplied, it is likely to come into wider use.

The Tax on Knowledge.

Augusta Evening News.

Whatever adds to the cost of reading matter is a burden on the entire public, and one which is felt in every house. All men outside of the paper-makers should demand free importation for printing paper.

Louisville Courier-Journal.

The paper manufacturers allege that they have to put up the price of paper because of the burdensome duty they have to pay on chemicals. This is a very strong reason why they should immediately join the movement to have the duty abolished. Out of their own mouths they are condemned.

New Orleans Democrat.

Our representatives in Congress should not hesitate to give their earnest and enthusiastic support to the law which has been introduced by Mr. Fort, of Illinois, and which is now before the Ways and Means Committee of the House, for it is a measure that will greatly redound to the benefit of the people of the whole country, who are at the mercy of a conscienceless set of monopolists.

Sending to Persia for Support.

LONDON, February 19.—A dispatch from Cologne to the Standard says news from Mery has been received at Odessa that the Turcoman chief recently met near Mery and resolved to send messengers to Persia and India asking for support. They also determined upon the military measure to be taken.

Two Organs.

Regulate first the stomach, second the liver; especially the first, so as to perform their functions perfectly and you will receive at least nineteen twentieths of all the ills that mankind is heir to, in this or any other climate. Hop Bitters is the only thing that will give perfectly healthy natural action to these two organs.

COWLEY CONVICTED.

A CLERGYMAN JAILED FOR CRUELTY TO CHILDREN.

How He Expected to Make Money Out of the Shepherd's Fold. A Poor Defense.

NEW YORK, Feb. 18.—To-day witnesses the very unusual spectacle of the conviction or crime and the marching off to jail of a clergyman of the Protestant Episcopal Church, in full and regular standing. The Reverend Edward Cowley has been found guilty. The trial, which lasted a week and a half, was as fair as any of his friends could ask for. He was defended by able counsel, Ex-Judge Fullerton and Chas. W. Brooke. These gentlemen had a tough job on hand and it is due to them to say that they defended their client with marked ability. It was a remarkable trial, attracting an immense crowd of people, a large proportion of whom were ladies. When ladies are present at the trial of a clergyman they generally sympathize with the accused. Not so, however, in this instance. They were present rather in the interest of suffering juvenile humanity than of Cowley. They brought their books and sandwiches, and generally stayed during the whole day's proceedings. Most of them were over middle age, and many wore spectacles. About half of them were from the city and the other half had come from the neighboring towns. At the close of District Attorney Phelps' speech they gave substantial manifestations of their enthusiasm for the conviction and punishment of the wolfish shepherd.

COWLEY'S BRUTAL TREATMENT.

The history of Cowley's Shepherd's Fold has already been largely spread before the public. Pretending to take care of poor children and to be kind to them, this man practiced enormities in comparison with which the management of Squeer's Dotheboys Hall was angelic. Twenty five children were starved, beaten, kicked, and otherwise maltreated. Little Louis Victor's case is the only one of these as yet settled with the Shepherd. There are twenty-four other indictments, a separate one having been made out for the case of each child. Whether the whole twenty-four will be pressed or not is as yet uncertain. The public does not exactly thirst for vengeance on Cowley, but it does want to see a wholesome example made of him, sufficiently powerful to discourage other professional almoners of the bounty of the charitable from following in his footsteps. He is sent to the tombs, whence he will be brought on Friday for sentence. The full penalty for his crime is one year's imprisonment and $250 fine.

There is much about this remarkable case that the general public do not understand. People ask what object Cowley had in taking a lot of children to starve. The "inwardness" is this. Our city charities receive aid from the public treasury according to their magnitude and the good they are supposed to accomplish. For some time Cowley's concern received five thousand dollars a year. This was fat pickings. He could on this vote himself a comfortable salary and live without doing any great amount of hard work. Being a doggish and disagreeable person he was not likely to be called to the charge of a parish. He bethought this as a promising way of making a living. In 1877 the mismanagement of his "fold" was exposed, and the exposure resulted in the withdrawal of the appropriation. He hoped to get this appropriation renewed, with back pay for the years during which it had been omitted. This was a prospective bonanza worth working for. The public had no confidence in him, hence the meagre contributions which kept him in poverty and his lambs on short rations. It looks like an act of self-sacrifice to work with very small salary or no salary at all. But when it is considered that the wily shepherd was working for a bonanza of about $15,000, it is easily seen that his labors were not without hope. To make a show of keeping up a charity which was worth the appropriation he asked for it was necessary for him to have some children on hand. Hence the victims. They were for show, and a ghastly show they proved to be. Had it not been for the act of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children these little wretches might have continued to starve. It is not likely that they would have died on the premises, for Cowley and his "officers of the kitchen," as he calls the persons who doled out the beans, seemed to know exactly how much would keep a child alive and prevent skin and bone from tumbling apart. When they went a little too far in starving poor Louis Victor they carried the suffering child to St. Luke's Hospital in order that he might not die on their hands. It was the removal of this child to the hospital that led to the exposure of the rascalities of the "fold."

A POOR DEFENSE.

The testimony in behalf of Cowley was exceedingly thin. It principally consisted of negative evidence. The landlady testified that she had never seen any children kicked, starved or beaten. Several clergymen who had had nothing in particular to do with Cowley, testified that they had not known of his committing the enormities charged against him, and that they did not think he was a man to do such things. It was considered a triumph for the Shepherd when one of the boys who had formerly been in the Fold appeared as a witness in his behalf. But when the boy testified that Cowley had tied him up to the gas burner and had otherwise treated him so unpleasantly as to cause him to run away four several and distinct times, victory was not seen to perch upon the banners of the accused. The general verdict of the public in regard to Cowley is, "Served him right." It is not likely that any such houses of benevolence as he kept will be duplicated in this city for a long, long time to come.

When Cowley heard the verdict of guilty rendered against him to-day he bowed his head and cried like a child. His counsel moved for an arrest of judgment in order to make a motion for a new trial, but the District Attorney pressed for sentence. The Court finally remanded the prisoner until Friday and he was taken to the Tombs by officers.

DAILY NEWS

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 21, 1880.

GEO. C. JORDAN, Editor and Prop'r

THE conviction of Rev. E. H. Cowley, of the New York Shepherd's Fold, will be no surprise to the public. Cruelty to children is one of the most reprehensible of crimes, and when proved it should be severely punished. The facts in this case, as developed during the two weeks trial, were of such a character that the best efforts of able and learned connsel, together with the active sympathy of the prisoner's numerous and influential friends, could not secure a verdict of acquittal.

WHATEVER may be the intentions of England in regard to Herat, it seem reasonably certain, now, that Russia is firmly determined to occupy Merv. A formidable army has been organized in Central Asia and, presumably, will be dispatched as soon as the weather will permit to execute the plan that Russia so long has entertained—for the conquest of Merv was decided upon very nearly a century ago, and the project has been fostered and strengthened during that period by each successive Russian ruler. In the past it has been a matter that could be deferred from time to time; that could wait for execution until other more pressing matters were attended to. But that easy-going period is ended. With the English troops almost within sight of Herat the conquest of Merv no longer admits of delay.

SHERMAN is up to all sorts of tricks to boast his candidacy. The letter in which certain colored members of the Virginia Legislature assure him that he is their choice of their constituents for the Chicago nomination is intended to dissipate the general and well grounded impression that the Sherman boom in the South is exclusively an office-holders affair, worked up by special agents of the Treasury Department. It will not have this effect, however, but will be interpreted as another evidence of Mr. Sherman's henchmen are wide awake and active. The masses of the colored people don't take each out-of-the-way methods of expressing their preferences. The real significance of this proceeding, so far as it has any, lies in the fact that is fair notice that the colored Republicans who have been training under General Mahone's leadership in the Virginia Legislature take no stock in the plan of the great repudiationist to elect an unpledged electoral ticket by a fusion of Republicans and Readjusters. They propose to go into the fight under their own colors, and the result of such a fight will be that Virginia will give her vote to the Democratic electors.

IT is odd, but the working of President Hayes' civil-service reform administration has induced the Republicans all over the country—even in Massachusetts—to demand with enthusiasm a change to Grant, Blaine or Sherman, not one of whom is conspicuously identified with that reform concerning which Mr. Hayes has written so many letters, mess ges and orders. The Chicago Tribune, edited by a member of the original Civil-Service Reform Commission, observes that the appointment of Mr. Howard to the Appraisership there "has demonstrated that the civil-service reform pretensions of Mr. R. B. Hayes are hollow, insincere and fraudulent," alludes to the President's "usual want of backbone," and fervently utters its litany "From all Ohio Presidents, civil-service reformers and financiers, good Lord deliver us!" And yet William Henry Smith is an Ohio man! Mr. Hayes seems destined to leave the White House with the singular and not wholly enviable distinction of having taken his office up with the support of all the respectable papers in his party, and laid his office down without a good word from anybody save people whose good word for a man is a danger signal to all his decent fellow-citizens.

THE TARBORO SOUTHERNER AND THE W. N. C. R. R.

Commenting editorially on the convening of the Legislature and the sale of the Western North Carolina Railroad the Tarboro Southerner says: "It is true, down here we know very little about the road except to pay taxes for its support, but we are not bereft of State pride and a desire for our Western fellow citizens to have railroad facilities. These we honestly believe the State is unable to give them for many a long year to come. We are taxed up to the throat latch. Our State debt must be paid, our children must be educated. Well, now comes Mr. Best, who proposes to build the roads and indemnify and rescue the State, without too great a sacrifice. We say let the syndicate, or what-not, build the roads for our Western fellow-citizens. If there had been capital enough in the State to undertake the matter, we take it for granted it would have been in the enterprise. Wilmington can't command it, Charlotte can't, (we are presuming this from the fact that they have taken no steps in the matter,) the tax-payers can't—then let somebody who can, rather than deprive Western North Carolinians of road advantages. Never let it be said of us that, like the dog in the manger, we couldn't eat the grass, nor would we permit the ox to do so. The expense of the session of the Legislature will be small compared with the burden on the tax payers to build the roads. State pride is a sweet thing to roll under your tongue as a tid bit, and often used by demagogues, but the poorest man in the State is the one whose wealth only abounds in State pride."

Washington and the National Democratic Convention.

Washington Star.

As yet it is impossible for the Washington committee to do anything more than they have done towards securing for this city the national democratic convention. This for the reason that but few members of the national democratic committee are yet here. Meanwhile they have all been written to, and the advantages of Washington have been fully set forth. To-night delegations are expected to arrive from Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis in the interest of these cities respectively. Neither Cincinnati nor Chicago has responded with any liberal subscriptions to get the convention. The Chicago democrats say they are too poor, but they will contribute one-third of the expense if the republicans will make up the balance. The St. Louis people do not seem to be at all active, indeed the only two cities making any demonstration worth being called so are Washington and Cincinnati. The meagre hotel accommodations at Cincinnati are well known, although it can lay claim to a good hall. In the point of hotel comforts Washington far exceeds Cincinnati, and if it gets the convention will provide a place of meeting fully ample for all the requirements of the occasion.

The Difference.

Atlanta Constitution.

Remove the duty on printing paper and bleaching powders, and the price would average five cents a pound. Let it remain and the publishers and the public will be compelled to pay fifteen cents a pound. They can take their choice.

Fate.

Mubile Register.

Blaine may boom and Sherman shuffle but the third term is written in the book of fate and cannot be erased.

Charles S. Prentice, of Toledo, O., went to Paris and thence to England to be treated for Bright's disease, and after the best physicians of both countries had done what they could for him gave up in despair and returned to America to die. Here he received further treatment from other skillful physicians without benefit, and while "listlessly lingering in pain and anguish," he says, heard of the Safe Kidney and Liver Cure, took it, and was completely cured in a few weeks. He gives circumstantial details of his painful experience and astonishing cure, in a long letter to H. H. Warner & Co., which will be forwarded on application.

Maud had a fine figure, good face and pretty name. One should see her at a distance. When she began to talk, you realized that she never used SOZODONT. Her breath was unlike the breezes of Araby the blest.

In the treatment of Dyspepsia, Chlorosis, Anæmia, Nervous and Muscular Debility, Nervous and Sick Headache, Dysmenorrhœa, Menorrhagia, Amenorrhœa, diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder and such like organic or functional disturbances, I know of no remedy upon which I can rely with more certainty of satisfactory results than the "Seven Springs Mass."

W. F BARR, M. D.,
Abingdon, Va.

I have found no one single remedy to yield such satisfactory results as the "Seven Springs Mass." In the treatment of Dyspepsia, Chronic Diarrhœa, Anæmia, Chlorosis, and for Chronic Eczema, I find it invaluable, associated with appropriate topical treatment.

GEO. T. HARRISON, M. D.,
New York City.

From my experience with the "Iron and Alum Mass," I believe it will prove the best medicine we have in use, for chronic diseases.

G. M. D. PATTERSON, M. D.,
Eaglewood, Texas.

For Dyspepsia, Ulcerations of the Throat, Inflammation of the Neck of the Bladder, Leucorrhœa, etc., the "Seven Springs Mass" seems to act with almost specific effect.

E. O. GRIGSBY,
DeView, Ark.

We could extend this list into the thousands with such testimonials from physicians from every State in the Union, but these are sufficient to indicate its application. The reputation of the remedy is too widely known to waste words upon its character. In ordering from druggists always mention Seven Springs Mass. Price $1 per package or six for $5, sent by mail, postpaid.

A Down-town Merchant.

Having passed several sleepless nights, disturbed by the agonies and cries of a suffering child, and becoming convinced that Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup was just the article needed, procured a supply for the child. On reaching home and acquainting his wife with what he had done, she refused to have it administered to the child, as she was strongly in favor of Homeopathy. That night the child passed in suffering, and the parents without sleep. Returning home the day following, the father found the baby still worse; and while contemplating another sleepless night, the mother stepped from the room to attend to some domestic duties, and left the father with the child. During her absence he administered a portion of the Soothing Syrup to the baby, and said nothing. That night all hands slept well, and the little fellow awoke in the morning bright and happy. The mother was delighted with the sudden and wonderful change, and although at first offended at the deception practiced upon her, has continued to use the Syrup, and suffering crying babies and restless nights have disappeared. A single trial of the Syrup never yet failed to relieve the baby, and overcome the prejudices of the mother. Sold by all Druggist at 25 cents a bottle.

Answer this.

Did you ever know any person to be ill, without inaction of the Stomach, Liver or kidneys, or did you ever know one who was well when either was obstructed or inactive; and did you ever know or hear of any case of the kind that Hop Bitters would not cure.—Ask your neighbor this same question.

Do you suffer with neuralgia or he ad ache? If so take Neuralgine and be relieved. Every bottle guaranteed to give satisfaction if taken according to directions. Hutchinson & Bros., Proprietors, 14 Whitehall street, Atlanta, Georgia. Sold by Pescud, Lee & Co., and William Simpson, Raleigh.

The best thing you can do to relieve your little ones, if they have whooping cough, or cold on the lungs, is to use Cherokee Indian Cough Cure, made in Raleigh by Mrs. Nelson. Nearly 1000 bottles sold, and everybody speaks of it in the highest terms. It is made from roots and herbs, and is good for every kind of cough for the infant or adult.

A Paper for all classes of the People and in every Department of life.

Independent and Conservative.

THE SUN is conservative in politics, independent in tone and non-sectarian. Its proprietors point to the principles that have governed it in the past as a guarantee of its course in the future. On all subjects of public interest it will continue to express its opinions, according to its best judgment with a view only to the promotion of the best interest of the public. All the freshest news, at home and abroad, excluding only that which is prurient or sensational, is given from day to day in its columns. In addition to what is furnished by the Associated Press and by the local reporters of The Sun, no expense is spared to keep it special correspondence, that from Europe as well as from the Pacific Coast, and from its Washington Bureau abreast of the times and to supplement it, as occasion may require, at every other point to which the current of events give prominence.

The Financial and Commercial Reports of The Sun contain at all times full and trustworthy accounts of all movements and operations in the leading markets, as well as that of Baltimore, with special telegraphic service from New York of the latest stock and other transactions; while its reports of the ruling prices of breadstuffs, provisions and other leading articles of trade and commerce, will embrace the latest intelligence, both at home and abroad, of each day's doings, up to the hour of going to press.

As a Paper for the People, filled with the freshest and most varied news, The Sun has acquired a reputation which is not surpassed by any of its contemporaries, while its large circulation, not only locally, but in many of the States of the Union, makes it the most valuable medium for all classes of advertisers.

Cuticura

BLOOD AND SKIN HUMORS,

The Scourge of Mankind. Old Methods of Treatment and Remedies a Failure.

CUTICURA RESOLVENT, the Great Blood Purifier and Liver Stimulant, is the most searching, cleansing, and purifying agent of this country. It may be detected in the saliva, sweat, milk, blood, and urine in forty minutes after taking the first dose, showing that it has entered the circulation and been carried to every part of the system. It forever eradicates the virus of Syphilis, Scrofula, Cancer, and Canker, those terrible blood poisons that rot out the machinery of life filling the body with foul eruptions. Taken internally in conjunction with the external application of CUTICURA, the Great Skin Cure, it speedily cures Scrofulous Ulcers and Old Sores, Salt Rheum, Psoriasis, Tetter, Ringworm Scald Head, Dandruff, and all Itching and Scaly Diseases of the Skin and Scalp.

ECZEMA ON THE SCALP.

BREAST AND LIMBS CURED.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gualemen—I cannot refrain from adding my debt of gratitude to you for having placed within my reach the wonderful CUTICURA REMEDIES, which have rendered unnecessary all further experiment of physicians, and in a remarkably short space of time have rid me of a loathsome disease. I dispensed with all physicians two years ago believing they did me no good. The CUTICURA has stopped this unsatisfactory expense—even if it were necessary and I had the courage any longer to follow their advice—and brought the long-looked-for cure and happiness.

I have been afflicted with Eczema or Salt Rheum on my scalp, breast, and limbs for five years, during which time I have been under the treatment of physicians, or at mineral springs, or taking some kind of medicine. I have been treated by Drs —— of ——, Dr. —— of ——, and visited sulphur springs and taken numbers of patent medicines, all without the faintest approach to a cure.

April 1st last, I began the use of CUTICURA, which was immediately successful in my case, entirely curing me. I have not had a clean scalp for 15 years until the use of CUTICURA entirely healed it and left it clean and healthy. The other parts of my body were affected in a more aggravated form, but are now completely healed, I believe myself completely cured. I shall continue the CUTICURA RESOLVENT as directed, for its wonderful action on the stomach and bowels and cooling influence on the blood. It will afford me pleasure, as I have done in many cases, to urge the afflicted to use these wonderful remedies.

Yours, etc.,
STEPHEN CROWELL.

NEW BEDFORD, Sept. 30, 1878.

A RUNNING SORE

CURED IN ONE WEEK.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER:—Some three or four weeks ago I ordered a box of CUTICURA for a bad case of Salt Rheum. The back of one of my wife's hands was a running sore. In one week from the day it arrived her hand was well and has remained so up to to-day.

E. P. DAGGETT.

MILFORD, ME., June 19, 1878.

NOTE.—Reader, don't you think these cures remarkable?

CUTICURA SOAP,

MEDICINAL AND TOILET.

Is prepared from CUTICURA in a modified form, and is positively indispensable in the treatment of Skin and Scalp Diseases. We recommend it for the preservation of the skins of infants, for gentlemen who shave and are troubled with tender faces, for those who desire a clean and wholesome skin and scalp, and for all purposes of the toilet, bath and nursery. Its delightful and refreshing fragrance equals or surpasses the finest Parisian Soaps.

The CUTICURA REMEDIES are prepared by WEEKS & POTTER, Chemists and Druggists, 360 Washington street, Boston, and are for sale by all druggists. Price of CUTICURA, small boxes, 50 cents; large boxes, $1. RESOLVENT, $1 per bottle. CUTICURA SOAP, 25 cents per cake; by mail, 3 cents; three cakes, 75 cents.

A Rare Chance for Investment.

Wishing to give my whole attention to the lumber trade, in which I am about to engage on a larger scale than ever before, I offer for sale on terms to suit the times the following valuable property in Cary:

I.

MY PLUG TOBACCO FACTORY, in a BRICK building 50x80 feet, 3 stories high, the lower story being two large storerooms. The Tobacco Machinery is new and has a capacity of manufacturing 1,000 lbs per day. The factory has been worked a year, and a good beginning for a trade has been made. The building and the machinery will be sold together, or separately to suit purchasers.

II.

GRAIN MILLS,

in a 3 story brick building, 28x30 feet. Two Wheat Mills and one Corn Mill, new and complete with a capacity for grinding 100 bushels of wheat and 100 bushels of corn a day, and can compete in quality of flour with any mills in the State. The mills have had a very large local patronage during the past year. They are driven by a 40 HORSE POWER STEAM ENGINE, improved, of the make of Talbott & Sons, Richmond.

Attached to the engine is also a 60 Saw COTTON GIN and power press, at a safe distance (about 100 feet) in a different lot. The engine has a brick smoke-stack 60 feet high, making the danger from fire the least possible and the rate of insurance very low.

III.

Several well built and handsome residences, with lots and gardens of about 1 acre to each dwelling. They are wooden buildings, 2 stories high, with from 5 to 7 rooms each situated in desirable locations in the village.

Besides these, 4 one acre lots, with cottage buildings of 2 rooms.

TERMS: One third Cash; balance on reasonable time.

DR. JUSTICE—Local notice.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

——Cold.

——Look out for "squalls."

——Revenue receipts $11,577.83.

——Political talk is the order of the day.

——Miss Minnie West is reported to be dangerously ill.

——Capital notes as scarce as hen's teeth.

——Mr. Julian S. Carr, of the firm of W. T. Blackwell & Co., is in the city.

——Not a drummer's license issued yesterday. Now you know it was dull.

——The meteoric shower—one star, but a big one—came at last. Policeman Beasley saw it.

——A large number of the lovers of the sport were rolling ten pins last evening at Lincke's hall.

——The "extra session" question will—perhaps—be decided to-day, we at least hope so. This thing is getting to be a great bore.

——No old bonds; no dead letters; not a marriage license. When things get down as fine as that, the reporters have a hard time and no mistake.

——Last night was a good night for skating—roller skates—and a great many took advantage of the cool weather and the merry go-round was kept up 'til a late hour.

——Dr. J. W. McGee, was the winner of the afghan at the Methodist festival last night. We understand that Doctor's McKee and E. Burke Haywood came next in order.

——The children of the graded school are to make up a purse for the Irish sufferers and send to the New York Herald, as a donation from the children of the Raleigh Centennial Graded School.

——Yesterday morning about day, the fire, which was supposed to have been quenched six hours before, again broke out, and it gave the night police a lively time of it for awhile to extinguish the flames.

——Dr. Justice, whoso office is at the National Hotel, advertises his "Great American Specific or Lightning Cure" in to-days NEWS. The Doctor comes well recommended. Give his medicine a trial.

——Read Mr. J. D. Whitaker's new advertisement. He always has a large supply of the best oak and pine wood on hand. Will deliver it ready sawed to order when requested.

——A clergyman recently said that many a one, while apparently singing with all his might the lines—

"Were the whole realm of nature mine,
That were a present far too small."

was diligently engaged with one hand in his pocket in scraping the edge of a three cent piece to make sure that it was not a dime.

Great Cæsar!

The "boss" fool has been found at last. An editor in the Old Dominion resents the charge of being a North Carolinian as an imputation upon his "Virginity." Did you ever!

Metropolitan Hall Last Night.

A good crowd was again in attendance at this hall last night to patronize the ladies of the Edenton street church The evening passed off most pleasantly, and at a late hour the last of three successful entertainments ended. Dr. McGee won the Afghan.

Killed by a Mule.

Mr. D. Sexton, brother of Dr. Sexton of this city, who was thrown from his mule a few days ago, has since died of his injuries, we are pained to state. Dr. J. A. Sexton was at his side but could do nothing for him.

Another Sherman Boom.

The Radicals in the 1st Congressional district have elected Samuel T. Carrow and Palmon John as delegates to the Chicago Convention. Both are reported to be Sherman men, as are likewise the alternates, Messrs. Miles Commander and W. H. Outon.

The Best Place to Buy Books.

They can give to their customers every advantage which is offered by northern houses. Every teacher in North Carolina is invited to send for catalogues and terms.

Won't be Here at the Extra Session.

One of the members of the Legislature, from Perquimans, Mr. Blaisdell, has resigned. So when the extra session convenes, somebody will occupy Mr. Blaisdell's seat, Gov. Jarvis having ordered an election to fill the vacancy the 11th of March.

Postponed.

The Governor and Council did not meet yesterday, as expected. The meeting, for some cause, was postponed until this morning, when it will be held in the Executive office. Our readers must exercise another 24 hours of patience and, perhaps, we can tell them about the Legislative call in to-morrow's issue.

Dick Badger Before the Exodus Committee.

The Washington Star received here last night, says:

"R. C. Badger, a prominent North Carolina Republican, testified to the effect that there is no just cause for the exodus from North Carolina now, and that he did not believe the recollection of ku-klux days, six or seven years ago, influenced those who are leaving now."

Wake Superior Court.

Court met at 10 o'clock yesterday, Judge J. C. L. Gudger presiding. The following cases were tried:

State ex rel J M Harris et als vs the Mechanics' Building and Loan Association. Motion for a receiver.

W T Johnson vs Joseph Prairie. Continued for defendant.

W C James et als vs Matilda Gallaghor et als. Judgment for defendants. Decree to be drawn.

Thomas L Love vs John G Dickerson et als. Continued on affidavit for defendant.

Elizabeth Barbee, administratrix, vs Calvin J Green. Continued on affidavit for defendant. Referred by consent: referree to be named.

Jordan Womble vs M T Leach. Judgment for plaintiff.

Reynolds Bros vs Irwin Pool. Pending testimony in this case, court adjourned.

No Respectable Young Man Will Do It.

"Leap year gives young ladies a gentleman's privileges in making love." Perhaps it does. But no respectable young man will have anything to do with a young lady who takes a position on a street corner, and not only winks at the gentlemen as they pass by, but also squirts tobacco juice on their coat-tails. Nor would it look well for a dozen or more young ladies to loaf around in front of a church an hour and a half on Sunday nights, sparring, and knocking one another's hats off, and dancing a tra-la-la on the side-walk, in order to kill time until the congregation is dismissed, and then buckle up to a young man and escort him home.

Supreme Court.

Court opened at 10 o'clock yesterday morning All the justices were present.

The consideration of appeals from the Sixth Judicial District was resumed, and causes were disposed of as follows:

J H Wilson and wife vs. C J Linneberger, from Gaston; argued by J H Wilson & Son for the plaintiffs, and Jones & Johnston for the defendant.

M P Pegram et als. vs. J M Armstrong et als, from Gaston: argued by W P Bynum for the plaintiffs, and J H Wilson & Son for the defendant.

C B Muse vs. C A E Muse, from Cabarrus; stands first for hearing this morning.

Court adjourned, until 10 o'clock this (Saturday) morning, when the consideration of appeals from the Sixth Judicial District will be resumed.

SEVENTH DISTRICT.

The following is a list of appeals, in the Supreme Court, from the Seventh Judicial District, so far as docketed yesterday (Thursday) evening:—

THE NEW FRYER.

This useful invention meets a long-felt need for a more convenient method of removing Oysters, Potatoes, and other fried food, with greater quickness, and all at once, from the boiling fat in which they have been cooked, and allowing the fat to drain from them while they remain over the fire; thereby getting rid more certainly of the superfluous grease, the objection so often made of the unhealthiness of food cooked in the ordinary frying-pan is done away with.

By detaching the supporter, you have for omelettes and other things for which a drainer is not required, a deeper and better quality of frying-pan than has heretofore been made.
